JOSH KELLY NAMED SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT FOR BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT AT OMG, INC.

AGAWAM, MASS., June 3, 2021 -- OMG, Inc. has promoted Josh Kelly to the position of senior vice president for business development. In this new role, Josh will focus on strategic growth opportunities, including mergers and acquisitions, product development, licensing, as well as strategies to expand OMG's business. He reports to Hubert McGovern, president, and CEO of OMG.

"Josh is uniquely qualified to fill this key position," said McGovern. "He has a deep knowledge of both our Roofing and FastenMaster businesses and markets. He also has a proven track record for developing disruptive technology, the best example of which is our industry leading RhinoBond induction welding system. He will also play a critical role on the senior management team at OMG," said McGovern.

Josh started with OMG in 1991 as a project coordinator and has held several positions within the roofing division including, key account manager, vice president of marketing, general manager, and most recently as vice president of product development and innovation.

Josh is a member of the Single Ply Roofing Industry (SPRI) trade association, a past president of the Roofing Industry Alliance, and a current member of the Board of Directors for the National Roofing Contractors Association (NRCA).

He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Massachusetts in Amherst and an MBA from Western New England University.
